

Rights Respecting School Steering Group!

The universality of the Rights (Article 1) meant that the application process was open to all of our students, and we received dozens of applications. All of the applicants were put through rigorous interviews, with a panel that included prefects and members of the school council. The photograph above shows the successful candidates!